

The NEW School Rules Leadership Seminar

Course Intro, Planning, Teaming

The new School Rules

This course is for every leader who wants to instigate change and create environments of growth, excitement, and passion. Based on EE's seven years of work in change management and the book The NEW School Rules, this course offers practical lessons for how to improve the practices of your schools and district to effectively get work done. While many education leadership courses focus on curriculum, budgeting, or coaching, this course helps you think about processes, people, and protocols to make lasting change.
