Teachers Change Trajectories

I was walking around in Chinatown in SF with my mom and ran into Ms. Meeks. I wasn't the best in her class, but she said some really nice things to my mom about my participation. Then she pulled out a Transformer toy from her bag and gave it to me. I had that toy for 2 decades.

Education

Mrs. Bahr was the first teacher to help me change my relationship with a part of my education that 1 did not feel successful or invested in.

Ms. Given helped grandmother's me understand my death and explore

my cultural identity.

Mr. Wallace made an impact on me as he taught me the joy of learning. As a struggling learner, I never enjoyed school but he made learning come to life. He inspired me to want to do that for others.

Transformational Teachers

Risky Times

"Teacher morale has plummeted over the course of the pandemic... Teachers say they're spread thin with technology challenges, a decline in student engagement, the fear of contracting COVID-19, and personal child-care or caretaking responsibilities. Many teachers also say they feel unappreciated.."

Teachers Are Stressed Out, and It's Causing Some to Quit

'I would rather be a barista at Starbucks right now'

Economic Impact

THE COST

$7 BILLION

STUDENT SUCCESS

The estimated national cost of public school teacher turnover, including the revolving cost to recruit, hire, and train.

Students taught by ineffective teachers earn less over the course of a lifetime than students taught by average teachers.

Retained to Thriving

What helps teachers to thrive?

Sense of Belonging

"When people feel like they belong at work, they are more productive, motivated, engaged, and 3.5 times more likely to contribute to their fullest potential."

DYNAMIC RECRUITMENT We attract and select

Taking action through reflection, routines, rituals

Reflection - Stepping back to think or write about teachers' experiences, interactions and accomplishments

Routines - Regular, planned practices to identify, recognize or celebrate successes

Rituals - Practices that bond people together, help us move through conflicts, amp us up to better performances, and assist us in adapting to change

Clear

Communication Communicate with teachers regarding goals, decisions, rationale and support

Why it matters:

Clear and frequent communication that elevates teacher success help to celebrate teachers; identify behaviors that embody values; increases teacher engagement

Take Action:

- 1. Reflection Success Reflection. Each week, dedicate 5-10 minutes to identify wins, progress and milestones achieved by teachers professionally and personally.
- 2. Routine Monthly Team Lead Email. Reach out to grade level and department chairs to crowdsource teacher successes.
- 3. Ritual Elephant, Dead Fish, Vomit. Create space to recognize and name the struggle. Teachers cannot succeed unless they can call out what is holding them back.

Clear Communication | Recognize the Struggle

Elephant, Dead Fish, Vomit

Elephant: The BIG THING that is not being addressed.

Dead Fish: Things that are long past, but are still haunting the group.

Vomit: Things people just need to vent out without any goals.

Introduce this by inviting people to participate in an anonymous survey to name the Elephant, the Dead Fish, and the Vomit.

When you have your results, share out in a meeting what you learned about the Elephant, and encourage discussion. Do the same for the Dead Fish and Vomit, giving each category of concern their own meeting.

Career Pathways

Provide teachers with clear pathways for learning, leadership and promotion

Why it matters:

Recognizing teacher success by connecting it to opportunities for growth makes teachers feel seen and valued

Take Action:

- 1. Reflection Teacher Growth Reflection. Each quarter, review a list of all teachers you support--circle those you've actively supported in their growth. Underline and prioritize 3 you have not directly supported.
- 2. Routine Shadowing. Connect with 2-3 teachers monthly. Identify career development goals. Pair the teacher with a shadowing opportunity in the school, district or community.
- 3. Ritual Support and Amplify Passions. Use "Hero Questions" to uncover and understand teachers' passions and goals.

Career Pathways | Support and Amplify Passions

Hero Questions

- Tell me about a time this month you felt energized.
- What have you learned about yourself this year?
- What strengths have you found most useful this year?
- Who have you recently helped, and what difference did it make in their work and yours?

Communities

Support teachers to connect and collaborate in diverse, purposeful communities

Why it matters:

Connection and recognition from peers builds community, elevates shared experiences and contributes to a greater sense of belonging

Take Action:

- 1. Reflection Mentor Messages. Schedule time each week to send 1-2 messages to leaders and teachers your support. Recognize progress, ask about needs, offer support.
- 2. Routine Check-ins. Begin each 1:1 or team meeting with a check-in. Create space for teachers to share life happenings, accomplishments and experiences.
- 3. Rituals Gratitude Messages. Build time into staff or team meetings. Ask leaders and teachers to pause and send messages or emails to recognize each other and express gratitude.
