

SNOWBALL SHARE

The Snowball Share protocol provides a way to create sharing and alignment across a group, with the goal of supporting team members with their commitments.

Start by sharing in pairs

After sharing in pairs, have two pairs join into groups of four people and share what you learned from your partner

Finally, have two groups of four join into a group of eight to share out themes from the group discussions